Collect

O God the King of glory,
you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ
with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven:
we beseech you, leave us not comfortless,
but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Today's Themes:

After Ascension Day, as we prepare to celebrate Pentecost, the theme is waiting in hope. The disciples were told to wait in Jerusalem and take comfort and strength from each other. As we reflect on the people of Manchester on the aftermath of Monday's bomb, it's heartening to observe the comfort and strength people continue to give each other, proving, if proof were needed that if we're looking for God we'll find God in others

First Reading                      Ezekiel 36.24-28
Reader                                      Ken Hedge

I will take you from the nations, and gather you from all the countries, and bring you into your own land. I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. I will put my spirit within you, and make you follow my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances. Then you shall live in the land that I gave to your ancestors; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Psalms 68.1-10

let those that <sup>1</sup> hate him <sup>1</sup> flee be<sup>1</sup>fore him.
2 As the smoke vanishes, so may they <sup>1</sup> vanish a<sup>1</sup>way; □
as wax melts at the fire,
so let the wicked <sup>1</sup> perish • at the <sup>1</sup> presence of <sup>1</sup> God.
3 But let the righteous be glad and re<sup>1</sup>joice before <sup>1</sup> God; □ let <sup>1</sup> them make <sup>1</sup> merry with <sup>1</sup> gladness.
4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name;
exalt him who <sup>1</sup> rides on the <sup>1</sup> clouds. □
The Lord is his <sup>1</sup> name; re<sup>1</sup>joice be<sup>1</sup>fore him.
5 Father of the fatherless, de<sup>1</sup>fender of <sup>1</sup> widows, □
God in his <sup>1</sup> holy <sup>1</sup> habi<sup>1</sup>tation!
6 God gives the solitary a home and brings forth prisoners to <sup>1</sup> songs of <sup>1</sup> welcome, □ but the rebellious in<sup>1</sup>habit a <sup>1</sup> burning <sup>1</sup> desert.
7 O God, when you went forth be<sup>1</sup>fore your <sup>1</sup> people, □
when you <sup>1</sup> marched <sup>1</sup> through the <sup>1</sup> wilderness, 8 The earth shook and the heavens dropped down rain, at the presence of God, the <sup>1</sup> Lord of <sup>1</sup> Sinai, □
9 You sent down a gracious <sup>1</sup> rain, O <sup>1</sup> God; □
you refreshed your in<sup>1</sup>heritance when <sup>1</sup> it was <sup>1</sup> weary.
10 Your people <sup>1</sup> came to <sup>1</sup> dwell there; □
in your goodness, O God, <sup>1</sup> you pro<sup>1</sup>vide • for the <sup>1</sup> poor.

Acts 1.6-14
Diana Lewis

So when they had come together, they asked him, 'Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.' When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up towards heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up towards heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.' Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Gospel

John 17.1-11

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, 'Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed. 'I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.
