After the service please join us for the parish breakfast, all welcome to stay to have a bacon sandwich, croissant or just coffee! Evening services resume at St Mark's church with Evening prayer at 6pm this evening.

Vicar is on Sabbatical. Robert will be on sabbatical from Monday 31st July to Thursday 15th September.

Steps on the journey of faith: Admission to communion: we will be holding another service of 'admission to communion' for children in the 7 to 10 year bracket on October 8th: they know something, but not everything about what the sacraments mean. Classes will happen on Saturday mornings from 9th September at St Mark's church. Please contact Anne Barker: anne.y.barker678@btinternet.com if you are interested.

Confirmation: the Bishop of Kingston will be coming to St Andrew's at the end of November to confirm people. 'Confirmation' is typically when you as an adult confirm the promises made on your behalf at baptism. It is a moment when you make an adult commitment of being part of the church and are welcomed into communion afterwards. There are classes leading up to it, probably on weekday evenings, late September to October. A great chance to review the Christian faith. Ask Robert to find out more.

Evening of Entertainment in aid of ABCD charity on Saturday 30th September 2017 at 7.30pm at St Andrew's church. Please come along to support the charity of the month. Free admission, donations welcome.

Almighty and everlasting God,
you are always more ready to hear than we to pray
and to give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy,
forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask
but through the merits and mediation
of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Reading Romans 12.9-end
Reader Ann Mannall

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.' No, 'if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads.' Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Gospel Matthew 16.21 – end

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, 'God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things. Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? 'For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.'
