Collect

O God the King of glory,
you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ
with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven:
we beseech you, leave us not comfortless,
but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Today's Themes

We are between Ascension and Pentecost and so in an 'in between' time. Acts features a fascinating insight into selection for apostleship, as they find a 12th person to replace Judas. The letter of John (probably, but not certainly, by the Gospel writer) and the passage of Jesus' speech from John's Gospel both have regard to what are the features of true followers of Jesus, including the fact that those who believe may be attacked by those who do not.

First Reading Acts 1.15-17,21-end
Reader Phil Doyle

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred and twenty people) and said, 'Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus— for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.' So one of the men who have accompanied us throughout the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.' So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, 'Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.' And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Psalm 1

1 Blessed are they who have not walked in the ¹ counsel of the ¹ wicked, □
nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the as¹sembly ¹ of the ¹ scornful.
2 Their delight is in the ¹ law of the ¹ Lord □
and they meditate on his ¹ law ¹ day and ¹ night.
3 Like a tree planted by streams of water bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that ¹ do not ¹ wither, □ whatever they ¹ do, ¹ it shall ¹ prosper.
4 As for the wicked, it is not ¹ so with ¹ them; □
they are like chaff which the ¹ wind ¹ blows a¹way.
5 Therefore the wicked shall not be able to ¹ stand in the ¹ judgement, □
nor the sinner in the congre¹gation ¹ of the ¹ righteous.
6 For the Lord knows the ¹ way of the ¹ righteous, □
but the ¹ way of the ¹ wicked shall ¹ perish.

1 John 5.9-13
Emily Davey

If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son. Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

Gospel John 17.6-19

Jesus said, 'I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.
