GDPR Consent forms are out today. As you are probably aware, there is a shift in data protection legislation (with the acronym GDPR). This means that all organisations, companies, charities or indeed churches (!) need people to 'opt in' to receive communications like emails. We haven't done this before, and, where we have, our wording wasn't always the best. So starting today people are invited to fill in a form, allowing us to contact them. Privacy notice and consent forms will be at the back of the church after the service or alternatively, please go to the parish website where you will find the privacy notice and downloadable consent form: www.surbitonchurch.org.uk.

Collect

God our redeemer,
you have delivered us from the power of darkness
and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
grant, that as by his death he has recalled us to life,
so by his continual presence in us he may raise us
to eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Today's Themes

A faith beyond boundaries is a theme in both scripture readings: in Acts, the Spirit spills over even onto the Gentiles (non-Jews), and in John's Gospel, God's love, which can work itself out, even after Jesus' death, through the love he will model for all and to which all can aspire, overflows out beyond the people who he originally met.

First Reading Acts10.44 - end
Reader Evie Lewis

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, 'Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?' So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Gospel John 15.9-17

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.
