Christian Aid. Many thanks to all those who collected, counted or contributed money to this year effort. Helped by a fantastic contribution of over £300 pounds from tomato plant sales, the total amount banked so far on behalf of Christian Aid is £2,939 pounds. This represents an underlying increase of 2% from door to door collecting alone over last year, a splendid effort which has reversed the trend of recent years.

Bring & Share lunch: Sunday 24th June in aid of the charity of the month, The Leprosy Mission; more details to follow.

Come and Sing Choral evensong on Saturday 9th June at St Andrew's church. Rehearsal will be at 3 - 5pm, with Choral Evensong at 6pm. It will be £5 per singer payable on the day, to cover music hire and refreshments. Music will include pieces by Haydn & Dyson.

Mothers' Union Surbiton branch are celebrating their 125 year anniversary. Please join them on Wednesday 20th June at 5pm at St Mark's church for a celebration.

Date for the diary: SASM's Choir and St Matthew's Choir singing Choral evensong at Chichester Cathedral on Saturday 1st September at 5.30pm. Coach will be available, more details in due course.

Some of you may remember Rev'd Chris Moody who was curate in the parish in the late 1970's/early 1980's and was married at St Andrew's. He has been recently appointed as Honorary Canon at Southwark Cathedral.

Are you able to help us with watering the new trees and shrubs at St Mark's? Please call Mike Smith on 0208 399 8865. Thank you.

Collect

Lord Jesus Christ,
we thank you that in this wonderful sacrament
you have given us the memorial of your passion:
grant us so to reverence the sacred mysteries of your body and blood that we may know within ourselves and show forth in our lives
the fruits of your redemption;
for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Today's Themes

'Corpus Christi' is the Latin for 'Body of Christ'. The church has marked this as a festival since the 14th Century, and it is an opportunity to think about what we are doing when we bless bread and wine. In Paul's letter, we have the earliest testimony of what was happening at early 'communion' services and in John we have a meditation on what it might be. All the time it is bread, a physical, temporal thing, representing something more than bread, something that is eternal.

First Reading                    1 Corinthians 11.23-26
Reader

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Gospel                                John 3.1-17

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, 'Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.' Jesus answered him, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?' Jesus answered, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, "You must be born from above." The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can these things be?' Jesus answered him, 'Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? 'Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. 'For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. 'Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.
