Today: Bring & Share lunch in aid of the charity of the month, The Leprosy Mission; starting around 1pm in the glass-room at St Andrew's church, going out into the garden if it's nice weather. Please bring something to share, picnic-cy or otherwise, and a donation in aid of the Leprosy Mission, that fights this disease still with 250,000 newly diagnosed cases each year, many in India. Either stay on after coffee at St Andrew's, or go home and bring something back. Whatever you like.

David Candlin is to be ordained Deacon at Guildford Cathedral on July 1st. Today he is preaching at St Andrew's at 11am, which will be his last service with us and a chance to say goodbye.

Date for the diary: SASM's Choir and St Matthew's Choir singing Choral evensong at Chichester Cathedral on Saturday 1st September at 5.30pm. Coach will be available, more details in due course.

Church garden: While the gardens are looking beautiful, this is only thanks to the work of our great volunteers. If you feel able to help us with watering the new trees and shrubs at St Mark's, please call Mike Smith on 0208 399 8865.

Flowers at St Andrew's: Jackie Page heads up flower arranging at St Andrew's, but is always looking for more help. If you'd like to be part of this enjoyable way of making the church look beautiful, please contact Jackie.

Contact by email. Robert sends out an email once a week particularly to those who might be interested in stuff for children. If you would like to be included on that email list, contact Clare on sasms@btinternet.com. We reach a lot of people but we realise some people who'd like it miss out.

If you've finished with your copy of Spire and Tower, the parish magazine, and it's still in good, clean condition, would you consider replacing it in one of the magazine holders rather than re-cycling it in the bin. This will reduce our printing costs considerably! Thank you Editor

54 Eternal Father, strong to save

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, we praise you for the gift and blessing of the Windrush generation.
We thank you for their service to this country in so many essential roles and for all they have given to the building up of our national life.
Enrich our understanding,
deepen our appreciation of one another, banish ignorance, prejudice and fear and knit us together by the power of your Spirit who is the bond of love.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Today's theme

These readings are actually the readings set for the Feast Day of Christ the King, which takes place in November.

There is a particular reason we are using them today, which will emerge during the Sermon.

First Reading

Ezekiel 34.11-16, 20-24

Reader

Del Gadd

For thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the Lord, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the Lord, have spoken.

Psalms 107.1-3,23-32

1 O give thanks to the Lord, for ¹ he is ¹ gracious, □ for his steadfast ¹ love en¹dures for ¹ ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the ¹ Lord ¹ say this, □ those he redeemed ¹ from the ¹ hand of the ¹ enemy,

‡ 3 And gathered out of the lands from the east and ¹ from the ¹ west, □ from the ¹ north and ¹ from the ¹ south.

23 Those who go down to the ¹ sea in ¹ ships □

24 These have seen the ¹ works of the ¹ Lord □
and his ¹ wonders ¹ in the ¹ deep.

25 For at his word the stormy ¹ wind a¹rose □
and lifted ¹ up the ¹ waves of the ¹ sea.

26 They were carried up to the heavens and down again ¹ to the ¹ deep; □ their soul melted a¹way ¹ in their ¹ peril.

27 They reeled and staggered ¹ like a ¹ drunkard □

28 Then they cried to the Lord ¹ in their ¹ trouble, □ and he brought them ¹ out of ¹ their dis¹tress.

29 He made the ¹ storm be ¹ still □ and the ¹ waves of the ¹ sea were ¹ calmed.

30 Then were they glad because they ¹ were at ¹ rest, □ and he brought them to the ¹ haven ¹ they de¹sired.

31 Let them give thanks to the Lord ¹ for his ¹ goodness □

32 Let them exalt him in the congregation ¹ of the ¹ people □ and praise him in the ¹ council ¹ of the ¹ elders

Second Reading

Reader

Ephesians 1.15-end

Mike Smith

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Gospel

Matthew 25.31- end

Jesus said, 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, "Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me." Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?" And the king will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." Then he will say to those at his left hand, "You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me." Then they also will answer, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?" Then he will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me." And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.'
