Thanks for all who helped at the Christmas Fair yesterday. Though this is being written before the fair has actually happened, it always involves so many volunteers giving of their time, energy (and money!) freely. Thank you to all who supported the event in whichever way.

Mothers' Union next meet on Wednesday 21st November at St Mark's church in room 2 at 2.30pm. Talk will be by Jackie Robbs on 'Working with Ministers'. All are welcome.

St Andrew's Day Supper as part of an Agape Eucharist on Friday 30th November at St Andrew's church starting at 7pm. An Agape Eucharist is a Eucharist in the course of a dinner. Suggested donation for the meal is £12, with all profits going to Firs Court Amenity Fund. Please sign up at the back of St Andrew's church if you would like to attend.

Children's Choir has started again, with the next set of rehearsals starting on Friday 30th November at St Mark's church at 4.30pm. If you would like your child (6 – 12 years) to join, just turn up or call the parish office. The Children's Choir will be singing next at the Christingle Service 3.30pm on Christmas Eve.

Parish Magazine: We are sorry for the shortage of parish magazines this issue, the parish office printer is poorly! We are working on it! It would be appreciated if you could return your finished magazines rather than recycling them.

Apologies also if your pew sheet is not clearly printed – again this is due to a poorly photocopier, which is due a new part next week!

Flowers at St Mark's this week have been given in the memory of Victoria Thangaratnam.

A very warm welcome to our Church today. We especially welcome Felix and Henry, their families and friends as they are baptized this morning at St Mark's. We hope that you will find something of the presence of God in our worship and among those you meet.

For your prayer.

Please give your request to a member of the Ministry Team, or speak to Clare Chesterman in the Parish Office (contact details on the front page). If you wish someone's name to appear on the pew sheet it will remain there for 6 weeks. That person will be prayed for at weekly services, and also regularly by those involved in healing ministry.

Heavenly Father,
whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life:
grant that we, having this hope,
may purify ourselves even as he is pure;
that when he shall appear in power and great glory
we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom;
where he is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Today's themes

Priests in the Old Testament are people who intercede for the people; they are the connectors between God and the people, through the sacrifices they make. In Hebrews, we have a focus on how Jesus Christ has taken that role upon himself. In Mark, we hear the beginning of a passage about what life will be like at the end of time. We are warned to guard against false teachers, leaders who lead people astray, who proclaim what will happen when they don't really know, and it doesn't actually happen as they said it would. So no contemporary resonances there...

First Reading                      Daniel 12.1-3
Reader                                      Rod Pearson

At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

Psalm 16

1 Preserve me, O God, for in you have I <sup>1</sup> taken <sup>1</sup> refuge;
I have said to the Lord, 'You are my lord, all my <sup>1</sup> good de<sup>1</sup>pends on <sup>1</sup> you.'
2 All my delight is upon the godly that are <sup>1</sup> in the <sup>1</sup> land, upon <sup>1</sup> those • who are <sup>1</sup> noble in <sup>1</sup> heart.
‡ 3 Though the idols are legion that <sup>1</sup> many run <sup>1</sup> after,
their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, neither make mention of their <sup>1</sup> names up<sup>1</sup>on my <sup>1</sup> lips.
4 The Lord himself is my portion <sup>1</sup> and my <sup>1</sup> cup;
in your hands a<sup>1</sup>lone <sup>1</sup> is my <sup>1</sup> fortune.
5 My share has fallen in a <sup>1</sup> fair <sup>1</sup> land;
indeed, I <sup>1</sup> have a <sup>1</sup> goodly <sup>1</sup> heritage.
6 I will bless the Lord who has <sup>1</sup> given me <sup>1</sup> counsel, and in the night watches <sup>1</sup> he in<sup>1</sup>structs my <sup>1</sup> heart.
7 I have set the Lord <sup>1</sup> always be<sup>1</sup>fore me;
he is at my right <sup>1</sup> hand; I <sup>1</sup> shall not <sup>1</sup> fall.
8 Wherefore my heart is glad and my <sup>1</sup> spirit re<sup>1</sup>joices;
my flesh <sup>1</sup> also shall <sup>1</sup> rest se<sup>1</sup>cure.
9 For you will not abandon my <sup>1</sup> soul to <sup>1</sup> Death, nor suffer your <sup>1</sup> faithful one to <sup>1</sup> see the <sup>1</sup> Pit.
‡ 10 You will show me the path of life;
in your presence is the <sup>1</sup> fullness of <sup>1</sup> joy and in your right hand are <sup>1</sup> pleasures for <sup>1</sup> ever<sup>1</sup>more.

Hebrews 10.11-14, 19-25
June Pearson

And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, 'he sat down at the right hand of God', and since then has been waiting 'until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.' For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Gospel                                      Mark 13.1-8

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, 'Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!' Then Jesus asked him, 'Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.' When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, 'Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?' Then Jesus began to say to them, 'Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.
