

Sunday 12th May 2019

3rd after Easter

08.00	BCP Holy Communion – St Mark's
9.15	Family Worship– St Mark's
11.00	Choral Eucharist with Sunday club– St Andrew's
18.00	Compline – St Mark's

Today is the All Age Eucharist at St Mark's church followed by a Parish breakfast. This evening our choir is being joined by St Matthew's choir to sing Choral Evensong at St Andrew's church at 6:00pm.

Mothers' Union are meeting on Wednesday 15th May at St Mark's church at 8:00pm when Jane Kosa will be speaking about the Winter Night Shelter.

Concert helpers: We are looking to reinvigorate our team of helpers at concerts that are held at St Andrew's. This would involve hosting, welcoming, listening to the concert, and then 'putting the church to bed' at the end. Across a year, thousands of people come to our church to listen to music, a great service to the community. Concert training: If you are interested in helping we have an information morning at St Andrew's on Saturday 11th May from 10am – 12 noon on the role of the host and how the church is set for the concerts. Please contact the parish office if you are interested on 02083909129/sasms@btinternet.com SASM's choir are singing Choral Evensong with St Matthew's choir at Winchester Cathedral at 5.30pm on Saturday 1st June. There will be a coach going from Surbiton with a pick up at Matthew's 9.30am and then St. Mark's 9.45am. Coach will return to Surbiton shortly after Evensong. (£15 adults, £5 children 16 & under) Payment required (cash) at the time of booking. Simon Harvey will be taking reservations in person from Sunday 5th May.

Children's choir starts again. The Children's Choir have started rehearsing again on Friday afternoons at 4.30pm at St Mark's, rehearsals in preparation for singing at the 9.15am service on Sunday 2nd June. New members always welcome aged 7-13 or thereabouts. See Simon Harvey for further details.

Looking ahead: Parish picnic at Pentecost We'll follow the 11am eucharist at St Andrew's with a picnic in Victoria park: there will be parachute games and other games for children, and just a chance to socialise for all ages.

Deepen your faith (or challenge it!): on three Sundays in the summer, we will follow Evening Prayer on a Sunday evening with a screening of a lecture by Prof Alister McGrath, probably the most lucid theologian in all England. More details in separate sheet. The first one will be May 26th Music from my travels: join Dave Dorrington as he presents a programme of recorded classical music at St Mark's Hall on Saturday 25th May at 7:30pm. Admission is free, but donations to the Charity of the month appreciated.

Children's admission to communion class we will be running a group of children's communion classes, in which they are made ready for the sacrament, typically between the ages of 8 and 10. Contact Robert if you are interested.

Rev'd Imogen Nay, a past curate of St Andrew and St Mark, will be inducted as the Canon for Evangelism and Discipleship at Chelmsford Cathedral on Sunday 16th June with a reception at 4:30pm followed by the service at 6pm in the Cathedral.

Collect

Almighty Father,
who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples
with the sight of the risen Lord:
give us such knowledge of his presence with us,
that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life
and serve you continually in righteousness and truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Today's themes

In both readings there is the amazing call of God: the first, more spectacular, when Saul's life is turned around; the second, more intimate, is the call for Peter to leave his fishing boat, and grow into the rock of the church.

First Reading Acts 9.1-6
Reader James Reisner

In Jerusalem Saul was still trying to frighten the followers of the Lord by saying he would kill them. So he went to the high priest and asked him to write letters to the synagogues in the city of Damascus. Saul wanted the high priest to give him the authority to find people in Damascus who were followers of Christ's Way. If he found any there, men or women, he would arrest them and bring them back to Jerusalem. So Saul went to Damascus. As he came near the city, a bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around him. Saul fell to the ground. He heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul! Why are you doing things against me?" Saul said, "Who are you, Lord?" The voice answered, "I am Jesus. I am the One you are trying to hurt. Get up now and go into the city. Someone there will tell you what you must do."

Zimbabwean Alleluia,

to be sung brightly, with rhythm.

Gospel John21.1-19

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'
