This morning we welcome you to Parish Breakfast. A slightly more relaxed affair this month with Sausages in rolls, Croissants and fruit. There is also some fizz to acknowledge a special occasion that will be given attention at the end of the service. We welcome donations towards the cost of the food and all profits go to the Charity of the Month which is Diocese of Matabeleland (in Zimbabwe).

Please note the next church breakfast will be in October to celebrate Harvest. We are still looking for volunteers for the team... please do email Clare on claremannall72@gmail.com

Surbiton Hill Methodist Church are running a Summer holiday Club called 'Wonderful Me!' for 5+ to 11 year olds from Monday 29 July – Friday 2 August 10am – 12:30pm. The holiday club will be free. Please call Sharon Lloyd 07870972760 for more information.

Ron Temple RIP Several people have asked about the funeral for Ronald, who died three weeks ago. Because this is being coordinated by social services (Ron had no next of kin), it is taking a while to fix a date: Stan at the Methodists and John at Christ Church, Surbiton Hill would also like to be involved and it is sure to happen in one of our churches, but a date and venue hasn't been finalized yet. Stan is 'holding the ring' in terms of coordinating it. As soon as we know where and when, we will tell people. Bearing in mind Ron's approach to time, it is slightly appropriate that there is a delay before it happens!

For your prayer.

Please give your request to a member of the Ministry Team, or speak to Clare Chesterman in the Parish Office (contact details on the front page). If you wish someone's name to appear on the pew sheet it will remain there for 6 weeks. That person will be prayed for at weekly services, and also regularly by those involved in healing ministry.

Almighty God,
you have broken the tyranny of sin
and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service,
that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Today's themes

There is a theme in both these readings of risk. Following God's path –proclaiming the Gospel – is risky but God will stand by us in that time. As a sidebar, note the fascinating mention by Paul of his own handwriting in Galatians. Clearly, he got a secretary to write out the bulk of his letter which he would have dictated, and the very last verses only were written out by him: hence the comment on his own handwriting, which has now made its way into the Bible.

First Reading                    Galatians 6.7-16
Reader                                Joseph Stanier

Do not be fooled: You cannot cheat God. A person harvests only what he plants. If he plants to satisfy his sinful self, his sinful self will bring him eternal death. But if he plants to please the Spirit, he will receive eternal life from the Spirit. We must not become tired of doing good. We will receive our harvest of eternal life at the right time. We must not give up! When we have the opportunity to help anyone, we should do it. But we should give special attention to those who are in the family of believers. I am writing this myself. See what large letters I use. Some men are trying to force you to be circumcised. They do these things so that the Jews will accept them. They are afraid that they will be treated badly if they follow only the cross of Christ. Those who are circumcised do not obey the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised. Then they can brag about what they forced you to do. I hope I will never brag about things like that. The cross of our Lord Jesus Christ is my only reason for bragging. Through the cross of Jesus my world was crucified and I died to the world. It is not important if a man is circumcised or not circumcised. The important thing is being the new people God has made. Peace and mercy to those who follow this rule—to all of God's people.

Gospel

Luke 10.1-11, 16-20

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near. "Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me. 'The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'
