There will be a short discussion after, finishing at 4.30pm. Further details can be found at the back of church.

All Souls: evening service Sunday, November 3rd at 6pm at St Andrew's. This is a service when we remember those who have died and we miss. While it's especially focussed on those who have died in the last year, of course grief goes on longer, for decades. So please write names you would like to be remembered out loud before God during the service, on sheets at the back of church. Write carefully, using capital letters, to assist those who will be reading them later.

Sunbeams will be having a break for half term on Wednesday 30th October, returning on Wednesday 6th November.

'A Light Party' is being held on Thursday 31st October and Friday 1st November from 4 – 6pm at the New Life Baptist Church, 6 Langley Road, Surbiton. There will be games, crafts, music for children. For more information contact the church on 02083907110/07566229560.

Parish Christmas fair is Saturday 16th November, 11am – 2pm, St Andrew's church. Special stalls: bottles, Christmas crafts, visit Father Christmas. We need volunteers to run these stalls. Please see Del today after the service. All sorts of prizes are coming into the silent auction. In particular, we need bottles (shampoo, fizzy drinks, wine etc) for the bottle stall at the fair. Please leave your donations at church. Raffle tickets are now on sale.

Are you available to transport guests to and from this year's Parish Christmas Day lunch? It would also be helpful if you are only able to do one way. Please contact Mike Smith to confirm your availability. His (new) e mail address is: mjs25smith@outlook.com or home 0208 399 8865.

Robert Stanier is on annual leave week commencing 28th October. Michael Johns-Perring is on leave commencing 26th. Both will return to the parish on Sunday 3rd November.

If you wish someone's name to appear on the pew sheet it will remain there for 6 weeks. That person will be prayed for at weekly services, and also regularly by those involved in healing ministry.

Collect

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Today's themes

Our first reading is a prayer to God. It begins with confession, asks for God's mercy and ends in hope. In our second reading, Paul writes eloquently and powerfully of his conversion and journey in faith, looking forward to the promises God has set before us. Our Gospel shows us that faith is something that ought to unite our inward thoughts and our outward actions.

First Reading Jeremiah 14.7-10, 19-end
Reader Andrew Horn

Although our iniquities testify against us, act, O Lord, for your name's sake; our apostasies indeed are many, and we have sinned against you. O hope of Israel, its saviour in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveller turning aside for the night? Why should you be like someone confused, like a mighty warrior who cannot give help? Yet you, O Lord, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us! Thus says the Lord concerning this people: Truly they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the Lord does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. Have you completely rejected Judah? Does your heart loathe Zion? Why have you struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We look for peace, but find no good; for a time of healing, but there is terror instead. We acknowledge our wickedness, O Lord, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you. Do not spurn us, for your name's sake; do not dishonour your glorious throne; remember and do not break your covenant with us. Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not you, O Lord our God? We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

Psalm 84.1-7

1 How lovely is your dwelling place, O ¹ Lord of ¹ hosts!
My soul has a desire and longing to enter the courts of the Lord;
my heart and my flesh re¹joice in the ¹ living ¹ God.
2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may ¹ lay her ¹ young:
at your altars, O Lord of ¹ hosts, my ¹ King and my ¹ God.
3 Blessed are they who ¹ dwell in your ¹ house:
they will ¹ always be ¹ praising ¹ you.
4 Blessed are those whose ¹ strength is in ¹ you,
in whose heart ¹ are the ¹ highways to ¹ Zion, 5 Who going through the barren valley find ¹ there a ¹ spring,
and the early ¹ rains will ¹ clothe it with ¹ blessing.
6 They will go from ¹ strength to ¹ strength and ap¹pear before ¹ God in ¹ Zion.
7, O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer;
listen, O ¹ God of ¹ Jacob.

Second reading
Reader

2 Timothy 4.6 – 8, 16 - 18
Del Gadd

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Luke 18.9 – 14

Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: 'Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, "God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income." But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.'
